Sunday, January 12, 2020 | The Feast of the Baptism of the Lord
Today we celebrate the feast of the Baptism of the Lord. What do we think of when the word sacrament is mentioned? Usually, we think of one of the seven special moments in a person’s life when God makes Himself truly present in a loving way filled with grace. Within the sacrament are symbols which help us understand what is taking place. After the sacrament has been conferred, there is some change or follow-up that must take place in the person (e.g. a new attitude, a new heart, healing, re-committing oneself to God.) As we celebrate the feast of the Baptism of Jesus today, it is a good time to look at what Baptism means for us and what it meant for the Lord.

Baptism uses several symbols. Water is the most obvious. Since it has no shape or form of its own, it represents all that can come into existence. All creation and all life are seen as emerging from the water. This becomes a repetition of the act of creation. Once comes from water clean and new. Water is a sign that our sins are washed away. Baptism cleanses us of original sin with which we are all born, and in the Baptism of adults, of every sin committed prior to Baptism. Water is also necessary for life and so is a sign that the life of the risen Christ is ours.

The second symbol used involves two kinds of oils: Oil of Baptism and Chrism Oil. The one who is anointed is brought into contact with God and made holy. The Oil of Baptism is olive oil rubbed on the breast of the infant reminding us of Jesus as our “shield”, protecting us from the evil of sin. The second anointing with Chrism Oil, a mixture of olive oil and balsam, is rubbed on the crown of the head. It is a sign of sealing with the gifts of the Holy Spirit. Both of these oils are blessed by the bishop at the Chrism Mass during Holy Week.

We also have the symbol of the white garment. This is a relic of the new clothes worn, in the first centuries, after Baptism. It is a sign of innocence and the new life of resurrection. The last symbol is the Baptismal candle. This goes back to the eleventh century. Like the paschal candle, it is a symbol of the risen Christ, the light of the world. Many churches today, like our own, highlight this symbolism by keeping the paschal candle in the baptistery and using it to light the candle for Baptism (usually lit by one of the parents or godparents.) It reminds us that we must keep the flame of our Baptism glowing so that our lives may shine with the light of Christ.

Civil Dialogue: A Better Way Forward

The United States Conference of Catholic Bishops (USCCB) has launched a year-long campaign calling for civility throughout this election year. Civilize It: Dignity Beyond the Debate invites Catholics to pledge civility, clarity, and compassion in the public square and to call on others to do so as well. As Catholics, our strong tradition of social teaching compels us to be actively engaged in the building up of our communities. And yet today, many shy away from such involvement because our national and local conversations are filled with vitriol and harsh language, often directed at people themselves.

Civility is different than remaining silent in the face of disagreement. Listening to opposing views is a part of seeking clarity and can be a creative process. All are invited to bring and share their values, beliefs, and questions.

What is needed is good, honest, civil dialogue. This means that we must treat everyone as worthy of being at the table, worthy of our respect, and worthy of being heard. Civilize It challenges Catholics to model love for neighbor through respect, civility, and compassion during the 2020 election cycle. Put your faith into action and make room in your heart for those with whom you disagree.

As part of this campaign, the USCCB and our diocese will put forth materials to help us form our communities through civil dialogue, opportunities for prayer, and resources for conscience formation. Pledge dignity beyond the debate and find these and other resources at CivilizeIt.org.

Tips for Engaging in Civil Dialogue:

1. Listen first and seek to understand the whole picture.
2. Ask questions for clarification.
3. Use ‘I’ statements; pay attention to body language.
4. Listen to what feelings are present and pay attention to how you respond.
5. Summarize what you’ve heard and ask for feedback.
If you would like us to remember a current member of the military in our prayers and added to the above list, please call the Ministry Center during normal office hours at 630/469-7540.

Please Support Our Advertisers

Our Sunday bulletin is one of the primary ways we communicate with you. Through our arrangement with the J. S. Paluch Company, the parish does not pay for the bulletin printing, which saves us thousands of dollars every year. Our bulletin is supported through the generosity of the advertisers—many of whom are our own parish members. Most are members of our local community. We ask you to consider patronizing these businesses and when you do, take a moment to tell the owner that you appreciate their support of our parish through their advertising in the bulletin. Thanks!

St. James Parishioners and Friends Invited to a Showing of “Unplanned”

In honor of “Respect Life Month,” the Knights of Columbus Council #9806 will host a showing of the movie Unplanned on Wednesday, January 22 at 7:00 pm in St. James Hall.

This film “speaks to one of the most polarizing topics of our time.” Unplanned brings us an eye-opening look inside the abortion industry through one woman’s inspiring true story of transformation.”

“All Abby Johnson ever wanted to do was help women. She believed in a woman’s right to choose, and as one of the youngest Planned Parenthood clinic directors in the nation, she was involved in upwards of 22,000 abortions. Until the day she saw something that changed everything, leading Abby Johnson to join her former enemies …and become one of the most ardent pro-life advocates in America.”

This is an R-rated movie due to the graphic depictions in certain scenes and is probably not appropriate for young children. Nevertheless, this is an important film for Catholics. St. James parishioners are invited along with friends and neighbors who might want to view this film. There is no charge. The film is sponsored by St. James the Apostle Knights of Columbus.
